

Seen In Surf City...

Left: d.goth, One of the working artists at the new home of the 101 Artist's Colony (at the old Nofufi location on the northwest corner of Encinitas Blvd. and Hwy 101) does detail work on one of her contemporary fresco paintings. Here's a tip, buy goth's important work while it's still affordable. You'll be glad you did.

Below: Restaurantuers Ryan Bertsch and Kazuo Morita (previously of Tomiko) celebrate the Grand Opening and Chamber Ribbon Cutting for KAITO, the new sushi restaurant behind Hershel's Deli in New Encinitas.