

freedom redefined locked inside minds labyrinth wearing shoelaces

don't notice the mess treasures and junk strewn about it is his own life passages wrapped up like gifts history sealed in stain compass set by soul peers through telescope backwards in boat made of hope following dark star drawing charts on a sandstorm set sail towards dream into the darkness candlelight of your presence illuminates cave terrifieds release their grip fly from the mouth in laughter look through the peep hole opportunity on stoop listen for his breath the knocker is broken off the bell is out of order
