

leaving

walk with me
for a time
this late summers eve
in the garden
of spring memories
wine and love

hold mine eyes
in your heart
and smile
the refection on your face illuminates me
like sunset on the water

walk with me for a time and let your strength
carry me through your leaving

just as the sun
must remove its intensity to let the earth rest
when fall takes the leaves from our trees
and you from me
